What do these tall structures have in common?
What shape should the base be to make the tower stable?
How will the tower hold the weight of the radar? Will it be at the top of the tower or on a ledge?
How will you reinforce the joints?